

Per Med. 1 - 44.3.201-3

A Fine Historic Medal:

A Medal was struck to commemorate the march of Gen. John Sullivan up the Susquehanna Valley in 1779, with special reference to the battle of Newtown near the present site of the city of Elmira, Chemung Co., N. Y. This battle was the decisive one of the expedition.

The size of the medal is twenty-five sixteenths. It has on its obverse side a representation of the monument erected in 1879 at the scene of the battle with the dates 1779 and 1879 in the field on either side of the shaft and the inscription "IN COMMEMORATION of the battle of NEWTOWN, N. Y., Aug. 29th, 1779," in a circle near the outer edge. On the reverse within a wreath of holly is the legend, "The forces of the SIX NATIONS, under the leadership of JOSEPH BRANT, aided by British Regulars and Tories were defeated by the AMERICANS, commanded by MAJ. GEN. JOHN SULLIVAN of N. H., thereby hastening the day which assured to the United States, their existence as an Independent Nation."

This medal forms a finely designed and executed memento of an important event in American history. The medals were struck at the time of the Centennial celebration at the scene, and a limited number remain to be disposed of. They are in Silver, Bronze and White Metal and will be sold at the following prices: viz.

Silver, $3.00

Bronze, 1.00

White Metal, .35

Or a set containing one of each $4.00

Sent by mail post-paid on receipt of price.

I also have a few printed copies of the Historical address delivered by the Rev. David Craft at the Centennial celebration of the battle of Newtown near Elmira, N. Y., Aug. 29th, 1879, containing large cuts of Gen. John Sullivan and Joseph Brant, (32 pages) which will be closed out at 25 cents each, post-paid.
